Welcome to the U.S. Commercial Service Egypt

Welcome to our first quarterly newsletter on commercial opportunities in Egypt, Lebanon and Libya. Our audience is our key stakeholder: U.S. exporters. This newsletter aims to be informative, providing market insight in addition to information on how the U.S. Commercial Service assists businesses enter and succeed in these markets.

At the U.S. Commercial Service Egypt, we believe that information and communications technologies have the significant potential to open new opportunities for U.S. companies, particularly SMEs.

We hope you find the material helpful, and encourage you to contact us for more information.

Egypt Highlighted by Department of Commerce as April's Market of the Month

The U.S. Department of Commerce dedicated Egypt as Market of the Month for April 2006. The Department highlights international markets that are up and coming and hold promise for U.S. businesses. A market synopsis was hosted on the homepage of the International Trade Administration and disseminated to U.S. Export Assistance Centers worldwide to help promote U.S. companies' awareness of Egypt. To view the synopsis, http://www.export.gov/articles/exp_mom_egypt.asp

Upcoming Trade Shows and Events in Egypt

CS Egypt has compiled a list of upcoming trade shows and fairs in Egypt that may be of interest to U.S. companies. To view the list, please go to http://www.buyusa.gov/egypt/en/egypt_trade_events.html. Please note that this information is provided as a service to U.S. companies. The Department of Commerce does not promote or support these shows.

U.S. Companies Establish Healthcare Forum in Egypt

On June 20th, Commercial Service Egypt hosted an executive roundtable to discuss the business challenges and costs of doing business in Egypt for U.S. healthcare companies, including pharmaceuticals and medical device manufacturers. Principals of 15 U.S. companies in Egypt discussed opportunities for collaboration between U.S. businesses and the Egyptian government to help transform the healthcare system into one that meets the needs of industry and the Egyptian public. There was an outstanding confluence of ideas, energy and thought-leadership on the challenges and opportunities in healthcare. As a follow-up, CS Egypt will organize a meeting for the group with the Egyptian Minister of Health.

The U.S. Medical Catalog Show, located within the Mena Meditech Fair, will be held September 14-17, 2006, at the Cairo International Fairgrounds. For more information or to have your company's catalogues on display, please contact Jihan.Labib@mail.doc.gov

Commercial Service Egypt Launches Arabic Website

The Commercial Service Egypt is proud to announce the launch of our new Arabic website. The site describes the mission and role of the Commercial Service (CS), as well as the services offered to Egyptian, Lebanese, and Libyan businesses. By promoting our role and services to local businesses, we will increase the reach of the CS and thereby be able to offer better products and services to U.S. businesses. The Arabic website can be access by: <http://www.buyusa.gov/egypt/ar/>

Safety and Security Trade Mission to Egypt

From March 21-23, Commercial Service Egypt hosted the Safety and Security Trade Mission to Egypt. Thirteen representatives from nine companies (Brooks Equipment Company Inc., Comtech Mobile Datacom, Field Forensics Inc., Iridian Technologies Inc., L-3 Communications Corporation, Northrop Grumman Mission Systems, Paratus Ltd., SafeView Inc., and Rapiscan Systems) attended more than 90 matchmaking appointments with Egyptian counterparts. CS Cairo Trade Specialists escorted participants to a tour of one of Egypt's most advanced ports, the Soukhna Port, to view current port security and learn about Egyptian port security needs. The mission was highly successful, with one representative agreement already signed, and several under negotiation, in addition to a number of equipment sales.

Egypt Market Research Reports

CS-Egypt produces market research reports on sectors of importance to U.S. companies. Sector reports highlight Egyptian sectors receptive to U.S. goods and services, and provide an overview of the size and strength of the sector, the major players/suppliers, and opportunities, in addition to valuable sector contacts. The CS boasts an extensive library of market research reports available to U.S. companies. The reports published this year by CS Egypt:

- Safety and Security Equipment
- Industrial Packaging Equipment
- Agricultural Machinery
- Safari Tourism
- Air Traffic Control Equipment
- Drugs and Pharmaceuticals
- Telecommunications Market
- Port Development Services
- Waste Water Treatment
